MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Allen B. Paul, treasurer of the Pine street Baptist Church, Richmond, shot and instantly killed his wife and within five minutes blew out his brains yesterday.

The shooting followed an all night quarrel. Mrs. Paul was killed in defending her 8-year-old son, Leslie.
The father, who had retired shortly before the deed was committed, entered the boy's room soon after armed.
His wife, who had been watching him, rushed in just as he pulled the trigger, the bullet taking effect in her left arm and penetrating her lung.

Crying for the lad to run for his life, the mother fell to the floor, and standing over her body, Paul fired another bullet into her left breast, resulting in death a few minutes later.
The son escaped and gave the alarm.
The neighbor who found that Paul had cheated justice by taking his own life.

According to the boy's story, his parents had quarreled all night long, and the youngest, frightened beyond measure, and fearful that something awful was going to happen, had lain awake in his room with his clothes on.
The storm broke suddenly, for, as the boy tells it, his mother arose at 5 o'clock and went down stairs. When she returned her husband was still in bed. Then she went to Leslie's room, and after attempting to quiet his fears, started to go to bed again. She had not been in her own room more than a minute before Paul, his eyes and face ablaze with passion, pushed his way into the lad's room and attempted to shoot. It was here that the mother's intervention cost her her life.
Leslie was a stepson, Paul had warned Leslie mother only nine months ago. Their marital existence had been unhappy. Twice before he had attempted suicide.

Paul left a note to his father, stating that he intended to kill young Leslie, his wife and himself. He had made the threat several times.

FIGHT IN A RESTAURANT.

In the Charlottesville "Greek" restaurant a difficulty took place at 10 o'clock last night, which for a time promised serious consequences. A student from the university gave an order which he changed a little later, and out of which grew a misunderstanding which led first to words and then blows.
The student hurled a mustard bottle at one of the proprietors. It missed the man and smashed the mirror back of the counter. The Greek picked up a sugar bowl and struck the college man on the head, knocking him down.
Other employees of the restaurant then assaulted the youth, jumping upon him, it is alleged, and stamping his face with their feet. The student was hurried to a physician's office and later removed to the University Hospital.
It is not believed the injuries will prove serious.

In a short time a large crowd of students had assembled, many having come down from the University in post haste.
The restaurant was closed by the police and Tom Demas one of the proprietors who said that he was responsible for the assault was placed under arrest. As soon as the doors of the restaurant were closed rocks were hurled from the crowd smashing both of the big plate windows of the restaurant.

Four other Greeks who had gone to an upper story of the building to hide themselves from the crowd were se-cretely gotten out of the rear of the building and taken to the county jail for safety.
The crowd, in a rather ugly mood, surged in front of the restaurant for some time. Mayor Haden, Commonwealth's attorney Walker and Police Justice Shackelford appeared on the scene, and in order to convince the students that all the Greeks had gone a committee was allowed to go through the building. Toward midnight the crowd dispersed rather suddenly.

SHERIFF KILLED.

While trying to arrest Silas Phelps on an assault charge early yesterday, Sheriff Edward F. Haskins, of Charlemont, Mass., was shot and killed. An armed posse of several hundred officials and citizens searched the woods all day for Phelps, who is armed with a double-barreled shotgun.

On Saturday night Superintendent Ferman, of the paper mill where Phelps was employed as a laborer, was stabbed seriously, following an altercation with the man. When Sheriff Haskins reached Phelps' cottage at Monroe Bridge, at daybreak Mrs.
Phelps warned him that her husband would shoot any person who entered.
The sheriff broke down the door and was shot dead.

Lewis Sears, who had accompanied the sheriff, asked permission to remove the body, and was given three minutes to do so. Small of stature, Sears could only drag the heavy foot of the sheriff slowly across the floor.
He had reached the piazza when Phelps declared the time was up and, pointing the gun at Sears, ordered him to go. Sears was forced to obey.

When Sears reached town with his story, a posse was formed which went to the Phelps home. They found the door barricaded, and there was no noticeable movement until about 10:15 a. m., when Phelps was seen scurrying through the woods back of the house.
He had apparently escaped through a rear door. He headed for Monroe Mountain, on his way cutting telephone and telegraph wires to facilitate his escape. The hunt went on all day, and was still being prosecuted at night-fall.

Phelps is 42 years old and has a wife and six children. He recently served a term in jail for shooting an employer.

SPAIN AND THE VATICAN.

Mgr. Vico, the papal nuncio, at Madrid, has formally protested against the royal decree issued Saturday authorizing edifices of non-Catholic religious societies to display the insignia for public worship and other ceremonies on the ground that the government should maintain the status quo pending the result of the negotiations which are being conducted with the Vatican.
Premier Canalejas, in reply, says that the decree does not touch matters covered by the negotiations. It is understood that the answer which the Vatican has made relative to the revision of the concordat and reduction of the public worship budget is not satisfactory, and the premier has notified the Vatican that unless it changes its attitude the government will be reluctantly compelled to break off the negotiations.

TO THE Owners of Dogs!

MAYOR'S OFFICE.
Alexandria, Va., June 11, 1910.
All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the dog or canine species should come forward on or before JUNE TWENTY-EIGHTH, 1910, and take out a license for the same from the Auditor. After the 30th of June all persons owning or harboring dogs, without the required license are subject to a fine as the laws on the subject require of $3.00 or $5.00.

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that others pay on one or two dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.
Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and policemen will report all such cases, and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court.
In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make application for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, etc., on a card or paper when making application for their licenses to the Auditor.

Attention is also called to the fact that while the payment of a license tax is required by the laws of the city, whether a dog is kept on the premises of the owner at all times or not, yet the payment of such tax does not entitle the dog to the unrestricted use of the streets and alleys of the city, day and night, for it is provided by law that: "The Mayor, in addition at any and all times, in his discretion, by proclamation, shall declare that all such dogs as have been licensed shall be securely muzzled, and if any such dogs be found running at large during the continuance of the said proclamation, without the required muzzle they shall be seized by the police force or other persons designated by the Mayor for such purposes and conveyed to a suitable place and destroyed."
FRED. J. PAFF, Mayor.

The following is a copy of Section 54 of the License Law: "On every dog, regardless of sex, one dollar and fifty cents."

SUMMER PRICES
ANTHRACITE COAL

Our 1910 summer prices on Anthracite Coal became effective Monday, May 2, 1910.
There has never been a time in the history of our business when we felt that we were able to give better values in Anthracite Coal than we can this season, as without the required values in Anthracite Coal there would be no supply from two or three of the very best collieries in the Antracite region, and will have a coal which is uniform in quality, well prepared, and coal that will give far better results than the average.
It is our desire to give our trade the best values that can be had, and we earnestly solicit the orders of our friends and customers.
